Prayer
Ministry
Sacrifice

As praying stewards: We celebrated with joy the birth of our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ! We also revered his blessed mother, Mary, on the first of the new year. May your New Year be filled with all good blessings from our Lord.

As ministering stewards: We took a much-needed break from parish activities, yet still visited our parish families in care centers, the hospital and nursing homes. We also received many thank yous from the many service organizations for which we provided gifts: Child & Family Services, God's Love, Good Samaritan Ministries, and Florence Crittenton Family Services. All were most appreciative of our generosity to their families and clients.

Saint Mary Catholic Community Finance Council Update

Thank you for all you have contributed financially, ministerially, and in prayer during the first six months, July 1st to December 31st, of Saint Mary Catholic Community's fiscal year, which ends June 30, 2025. The focus of this update will be on the parish's finances to this point in time.

If you have been looking at the second page of the bulletin in the Stewardship section, you probably have noted Stewardship Gifts/Ordinary Income received has not been keeping up with the budgeted needs of the parish. These are your gifts received at Mass and provided by you through online giving and the automatic transfer of funds. As of December 31st, gifts received was less by $19,019 when compared to the budgetary need. These figures also include Christmas contributions.

What comprises this deficit is giving is down from the previous fiscal year by $10,482 through December 31st. Additionally, despite cuts in expenses in a number of areas, there was an overall increase in expenses, resulting in the need of one percent more in Stewardship Gifts/Ordinary Income over last fiscal year. These inflationary expense increases are throughout the parish budget in areas such as personnel, insurance, and services.

Although the parish has cash reserves to offset such deficiencies, it is the hope of the Finance Council by making you aware of the parish's current fiscal year financial position, along with your continued generosity, that using these reserves can be avoided.

Remember there are aids to help you to give to the parish financially through envelopes, online giving, and the automatic transfer of funds. So, avail yourself of what works best for you to help you to give as you intend, and call the parish office for assistance with any of these methods.

Also, in the Stewardship section of page two of the bulletin is Maintenance and Repair Needs and Gifts. This section identifies the maintenance needs of the parish, which includes the parish's regular maintenance and repair needs, along with major repairs as identified and not included in the parish budget for this fiscal year. The reason for showing this is to seek regular donations to Maintenance and Repair and extraordinary gifts for major repairs.

We have been blessed with some gifts for the Church Sky Light Repair in the worship area of the Church, but more would be appreciated. The work on this will take place during warmer weather, and after additional bids on the project have been solicited.

One of the furnaces for the Church building recently had to be replaced, and the work is completed; but if you would like to donate to this major repair, such generosity would be gratefully received.

A considerable amount of time has passed since we lost the use of our Baptismal Font. The Pastoral Council has been working with the Maintenance and Repair Crew to come up with a repair which will stylistically be consistent with our worship space. This proposal has been accepted and with it the cost of $20,000, for which any contribution would be greatly accepted.

If you have a desire to contribute to one or more of the parish's maintenance and repair needs, you can do so by using a maintenance repair envelope or use an envelope marked maintenance and repair, and place it in the collection basket. Gifts can also be made online as well.

What each person contributes to Saint Mary Catholic Community financially, ministerially, and prayer is greatly appreciated, and, when guided by God, our parish needs will be met.

From Father Tim

“(USA) On this anniversary (January 22, 2025) of the Supreme Court decision, Roe vs. Wade (1973), all dioceses of the United States shall observe “a day of prayer for the full restoration of the legal guarantee of the right to life and of penance for violation to the dignity of the human person through acts of abortion.” (GIRM, no. 373).

As we know, the 1973 Roe vs. Wade decision was overturned by the Supreme Court in recent years. However, the battle for the sanctity and protection of human life continues on in our state and throughout our nation.

We have to remain diligent in prayer and in fasting and self-sacrifice to uphold the sanctity of life. Prayer, fasting, and self-sacrifice are fundamental to our faith, and in the fundamental establishment of our nation and her principles.

May we be fully aware of the beauty and wonder of the gift of human life from conception until natural death. May we be steadfast in our belief that all life is a gift from God to be treasured and protected at all times. And may we embrace the culture of life by seeing Christ in every person we encounter in our daily lives. All of us are created in the image and likeness of God, and it is God’s will that we will be one day with him in paradise. Because with God is life, and life in abundance.

God bless all of you!

Fr. Tim

World Peace Prayer

Dr. Wendy Yuen

“First of all, then, I ask that supplications, prayers, petitions, and thanksgivings be offered for everyone, for kings and for all in authority, that we may lead a quiet and tranquil life in all devotion and dignity.” (1 Timothy 2:1-2)

Marty Haugen (b. 1950), an American composer of liturgical music, has touched countless hearts with his hymns of hope and faith. Among his many works, World Peace Prayer stands out as a powerful call for global harmony, weaving themes of reconciliation, compassion, and shared humanity into a timeless song.

The refrain, “Lead us from death to life, from falsehood to truth,” is drawn from the Universal Prayer for Peace. This prayer was first publicly used in July 1981 by Mother Teresa at St. James’ Anglican Church in Piccadilly, London. These simple yet profound words serve as a bridge between diverse communities and traditions, uniting all who seek a world of justice and harmony. It is a prayer that resonates deeply with the Christian mission to be peacemakers.

The hymn’s melody is anchored in a motif of four rising notes, evoking the sense of looking upward to God in prayer. This clever musical choice underscores the hymn’s meditative and prayerful nature. The melody’s simplicity allows congregations to join in song, while its gentle repetition fosters introspection and invites the listener into contemplation.

The refrain of World Peace Prayer is a plea for healing and transformation in a fractured and divided world. It calls for a journey from darkness to light, fear to trust, and hatred to love. Through its powerful contrasts—death to life, war to peace—it expresses a universal longing for reconciliation and unity. The invocation for peace to fill our hearts, the world, and the universe transforms the hymn into a vision for a future rooted in love and compassion.

In a world marked by conflict and division, World Peace Prayer serves as a reminder of our shared responsibility to work for peace. It unites hearts and voices in the pursuit of justice and reconciliation, encouraging us to embody Christ’s message of love in both word and action.

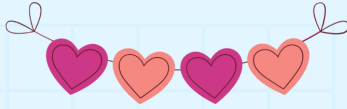

As we sing this hymn, let each of our prayers contribute to a ripple effect of love and healing, drawing the world closer to God’s vision for humanity. Together, may we strive to build a better, more peaceful world.

I have loved you with an everlasting love!
Jeremiah 31:3

SAINT FRANCIS PEACE THROUGH JUSTICE MINISTRY

Honoring Rev. Martin Luther King, Jr. and Black History Month

St. Francis Peace Through Justice Ministry

A Prayer of Faith and Hope*

Martin Luther King, Jr

In times of fear amid rumors of war,
We pray that one day
Justice will roll down like water,
And righteousness like a mighty stream.
We pray that all our elected officials will
Do justice and love mercy
And walk humbly with their God.
We pray that one day war will come to an end,
That men will beat their swords into plowshares
And their spears into pruning hooks,
That nations will no longer rise up against nations,
Neither will they study war any more.
We pray that one day the lamb and the lion will lie down together
And everyone will sit under their own vine and fig tree
And none shall be afraid.
We pray that one day every valley shall be exalted
And every mountain and hill will be made low,
The rough places will be made smooth
And the crooked places straight,
And the glory of the Lord shall be revealed,
And all flesh shall see it together.
We pray that with this faith
We will be able to adjourn the councils of despair
And bring new light into the dark chambers of pessimism.
We pray that with this faith
We will be able to speed up the day
When there will be peace on earth and good will toward all.
We pray for that glorious day,
When the morning stars will sing together,
And the children of God will shout for joy.
Amen.

SAINT MARY CARE FOR CREATION MINISTRY

The Tenth Anniversary of Pope Francis' Encyclical, Laudato Si' – *On Care for the Common Home (May 2015) will be celebrated this year. Scripture is powerfully woven into the document and sets the stage for how humanity must see the world and all of life as a gift from God. This encyclical, a public letter from the pope, “focuses on care for the natural environment and all people, as well as broader questions of the relationship between God, humans, and the Earth.” (LSi’Movement)

On the Tenth anniversary year, it is good to remember the Top Ten Takeaways from *Laudato Si' as shared by James Martin S.J. The link below will take you to a deeper discussion of the ten takeaways and also a four-minute video summarizing these thoughts.

1. The spiritual perspective is now part of the discussion on the environment.
2. The poor are disproportionately affected by climate change.
3. Less is more.
4. Catholic social teaching now includes teaching on the environment.
5. Discussions about ecology can be grounded in the Bible and church tradition.
6. Everything is connected—including the economy.
7. Scientific research on the environment is to be praised and used.
8. Widespread indifference and selfishness worsen environmental problems.
9. Global dialogue and solidarity are needed.
10. A change of heart is required.

In November of 2024 at the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops (USCCB) annual assembly, the bishops had a 36-minute session focusing on the tenth anniversary of Laudato Si', a topic that had not been officially discussed since the encyclical was written in 2015. Our Catholic bishops have been mostly silent on the issue of care for our common home and the interconnectedness of creation for the last ten years. Several bishops have embraced the teachings of Laudato Si' and have created a culture of care for all of God's creation in their diocese. The silence is broken. Bishop Vetter returned and gave a Thanksgiving homily focused on care for creation and, hopefully, will take steps to build awareness throughout our diocese. Discussions surfaced on actions that U.S. Catholics could take that would honor the heart of Laudato Si'. The following two actions were proposed, but due to time constraints were not voted on. These actions are available to us now and can easily become a part of our lives.

1. Spend time in nature on Sundays. "Not to do something, but to experience something — the mystery of God's presence in the sacraments and in creation," Archbishop Gudziak stated.
2. A return of year-round meatless Fridays for the good of the soul and the planet.

Laudato Si'

A weekly tip on Caring for Our Common Home

Practice observing and appreciating, the beauty in all aspects of creation that surround you. “If someone has not learned to stop and admire something beautiful, we should not be surprised if he or she treats everything as an object to be used and abused without scruple.” (Laudato Si' 215)

*Lord, as we celebrate the Tenth Anniversary Year of Laudato Si' let us cherish your beautiful creation.*
